The Vision

Two Nations, One Shared Future: Connecting the Rockies to the Glaciers.

TENGLANET is a modern movement designed to forge a permanent bridge between Iceland and Alberta. By transforming Reykjavik and Calgary into dual hubs for cooperation, we connect the entrepreneurial spirit of Western Canada with the sustainable resilience of the Nordic region.

Why This Partnership?

Twin Pillars of the North Atlantic: Where Nordic Innovation Meets Canadian Scale.

Iceland: The Nordic Gateway	Alberta: The Western Powerhouse
Global leader in green & renewable energy.	Economic powerhouse of Western Canada.
Gateway to Scandinavian & European markets.	Leader in energy, agriculture, and construction.
Booming innovation in tech & sustainability.	Young, talented, and entrepreneurial workforce.

STRATEGIZE. BUILD. DELIVER THE FUTURE.

Core Pillars of Exchange

The Spirit of Tengslanet: Innovation Rooted in Shared Heritage.

- Discussion Forums: Panel discussions on clean energy, DeepTech, and sustainable development.
- Business & Trade Fairs: Showcasing startups and established companies to new export markets.
- Cultural Showcases: Music, art, film, and culinary experiences highlighting national heritage.
- Education & Research: Partnerships between universities and research institutions for joint projects.

A Strategic Bridge to Global Markets

Unlocking New Trade, Capital, and Investment Channels.

- Market Access: Direct entry for Icelandic startups into Western Canadian and North American markets.
- European Launchpad: Reykjavik as the strategic gateway for Alberta tech into Scandinavian and EU ecosystems.
- Capital Flow: Linking Nordic innovation with Canadian investment networks and private equity.
- Trade Resilience: A secure transatlantic corridor for green technology and high-end design.
